FROM THE DIRECTOR

Happy New Year!

This issue of our newsletter has been restructured in an effort to give Veterans more information on VA benefits and programs. Each issue will now feature something on VA healthcare and on a benefit or program, as well as office, community and local updates. We hope you find it informative, colorful and helpful.

Our office celebrated milestones in 2025; and I want to share those with you. Kathy DeBerry, our Senior Veterans' Affairs Benefits Counselor, retired in April after 12.5 exemplary years serving Veterans and their families. She made a huge impact in this office, and to us, her work family. Although we do miss her, she is enjoying retirement and caring for her first grandchild. We wish her well.

Brittany Gunter was promoted to the Senior Benefits Counselor position after the retirement of Kathy DeBerry. Congratulations to Brittany! We are proud of her! Veterans' Affairs Benefits Counselor, Lee Harley, moved on to the County Animal Control Office in September. He serves as an Animal Control Officer. He seems to enjoy it. These team departures brought us two new teammates, Jolene Bailey and Michelle Schrock. They have hit the ground running. Jolene is an Army Veteran. Michelle has family members who are Veterans. Please stop by and welcome them if you have the time.

Our Nation celebrates its 250th birthday this year as a free and democratic republic and hundreds of events are scheduled nationally and locally. I hope you can attend at least one celebration to show your support for the freest country in the world.

Lastly, I began my 15th year as your County Veterans' Service Officer. I am truly honored and humbled to serve in this capacity. I really enjoy the work we get to do every day. There is no greater joy than to call a Veteran or a survivor to tell them their VA benefits have been awarded. We see and hear the struggles of the people we serve. At times, they want to give up on their claim for benefits due to the long wait for an answer or the volume of documents needed to substantiate a claim. However, we always encourage them to ride it out and wait to see what the VA says in their decision. We thoroughly love this work and believe in the VA process and the VA system.

Enjoying the journey,

The Meritorious Service Medal (MSM)

The Meritorious Service Medal (MSM) ribbon was established in 1969. It is purplish-red with thin white stripes along each edge, representing outstanding noncombat service. The colors are similar to the Legion of Merit but are used for roles with less responsibility. The MSM recognizes significant peacetime contributions and, since 2004, meritorious achievement in combat zones. Multiple awards are shown with oak leaf clusters or gold stars.

History & Background

The medal was created by President Lyndon B. Johnson through Executive Order 11448 on January 16, 1969. It serves as a counterpart to the Bronze Star, but for noncombat meritorious service. The MSM recognizes members of the U.S. Armed Forces for outstanding achievement or meritorious service to the country. It is similar to the Legion of Merit but is given for roles with less responsibility.

At first, the MSM was awarded only during peacetime. After 2004, it began to be given instead of the Bronze Star for meritorious service in certain combat areas.

Ribbon & Medal Design

The ribbon is purplish-red with a 1/4-inch white stripe set 1/8-inch from each edge. These colors are similar to those of the Legion of Merit.

The medal is a bronze medallion featuring an eagle on laurel branches, symbolizing achievement and the nation. Rays come out from a central star.

Devices for Multiple Awards

Army/Air Force: Oak Leaf Clusters.

Navy/Marine Corps/Coast Guard: Gold Stars.

Coast Guard: Operational Distinguishing "O" Device.

WM. JENNINGS BRYAN DORN VA MEDICAL CENTER

Welcoming All Veterans!

For Veterans in the Midlands, Dorn VA Medical Center is the main hub for VA health care in Columbia, SC. This is where Veterans can establish primary care, manage medications, get referrals, and build a long-term care record within the VA system.

The first primary care appointment is very important. It sets up the baseline for future care. This includes specialty referrals, labs tests, imaging, and mental health care. Even minor changes in health are worth mentioning early. Providers use that information to track changes over time.

One of Dorn VA Medical Center's biggest strengths is coordination. Providers across the VA health care system can see the same Veteran's records. This helps Providers treat medical issues as a team. Like any large medical center, it can take patience and follow-ups. For Veterans who later decide to file VA claims, having care documented at Dorn VA Medical Center creates a clear medical history within the VA system. This is not required for claims, nor a guarantee of benefits. However, it does help with medical documentation for claims.

DORN VA MENTAL HEALTH

Dorn VA Medical Center offers on-site mental health services, including same-day walk-in care during clinic hours. Veterans do not need a diagnosis to get started. Many begin with a simple conversation and are routed from there.

Mental health care goes beyond PTSD. Sleep problems, depression, anxiety, irritability, and stress-related symptoms are common reasons Veterans seek help. Mental health care can also start through primary care.

You do not need to be enrolled in VA health care to ask for help. The priority is support and care.

~75%

Veterans use VA health care as their primary care source.

VA.gov

VETERANS AFFAIRS MENTAL HEALTH MOMENT

IT DOESN'T ALWAYS LOOK THE WAY PEOPLE EXPECT

When people hear “military mental health,” they often think only of PTSD. But service-related mental health concerns are broader and don’t always show up right away. Depression, anxiety, sleep problems, irritability, and difficulty adjusting after service are all common reasons Veterans seek VA mental health care.

Many Veterans have learned to push through their symptoms while in uniform. Many don’t always recognize when stress, poor sleep, or emotional changes are affecting daily life both in uniform and in civilian life. VA mental health providers are trained to understand military culture; and how physical conditions, pain, and sleep issues can overlap with mental health. VA mental health care is about finding a better quality of life and stability, not be embarrassed to ask for help. It is also important to know that VA allows Veterans to walk in to any VA medical center for mental health help at any time! Even if they are not yet enrolled in VA health care!

Just like physical care, ongoing mental health treatment creates a documented history. If symptoms worsen or begin to interfere with work or relationships, that record may later support a VA claim.

HOW CAN I DEFEND MY MENTAL HEALTH?

PROTECT

Even practicing a few of these habits daily can build coping skills by increasing:

- Exercise
- Balanced nutrition
- Quality sleep
- Relaxation and meditation
- Goal setting
- Social support connections

SEEK HELP

There are many different professionals and resources available, including:

- Counselors
- Chaplains
- Social workers
- Behavioral health consultants
- Psychologists
- Psychiatrists
- Psychiatric nurse practitioners

OPTIMIZE

These practices and strategies may enhance your mental health and improve quality of life:

- Practice mindfulness
- Journaling and creative expression
- Challenge negative thinking
- Find meaning in everything you do

What They do:

Vet Centers are community-based counseling centers that provide a wide range of social and psychological services, including professional counseling to eligible Veterans, service members, including National Guard and Reserve components, and their families. Counseling is offered to make a successful transition from military to civilian life or after a traumatic event experienced in the military to include military sexual trauma (MST). Individual, group, marriage and family counseling is offered in addition to referral and connection to other VA or community benefits and services. Vet Center counselors and outreach staff, many of whom are Veterans themselves, are experienced and prepared to discuss the tragedies of war, loss, grief and transition after trauma.

Vet Centers

Life isn't always easy after a deployment. That's where we can help. We offer confidential support for Veterans, service members, and their families at no cost in a relaxed, non-medical setting. Our services include counseling for needs such as depression, post traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and the psychological effects of military sexual trauma (MST). We can also connect you with more support in VA and your community. All services are strictly confidential.

Vet Center Call Center

1-877-927-8387 is a free, around the clock confidential call center where Veterans, service members and their families can talk about their military experience or any other issue they are facing in transitioning after military service or trauma and get connected to their nearest Vet Center. Our call center team is comprised of combat Veterans from several eras as well as family members of Veterans.

The DAISY Award

FOR EXTRAORDINARY NURSES

IN MEMORY OF J. PATRICK BARNES

The DAISY Award was established by the DAISY Foundation in memory of J. Patrick Barnes who died at 33 of an auto-immune disease. Patrick's family was awestruck by the clinical skills, caring and compassion of the nurses who cared for him. They created this national award to honor his memory and thank nurses everywhere.

The DAISY Award is presented quarterly to two Columbia VA nurses who are nominated by a Veteran, family member, employee, or volunteer witnessing extraordinary inpatient or outpatient care. Nomination forms can be found throughout Columbia VA's main campus, our outpatient clinics, or click below to fill out an online form.

Impact of DAISY Recognition

Three areas of profound impact are:

Nurse Engagement

- Ignites extraordinary compassionate care
- Improves satisfaction and retention
- Promotes well-being and resilience

Healthy Work Environment

- Celebrates all the right
- Reminds nurses why they became nurses
- Builds team spirit

Patient & Family Experience

- Communicates profound gratitude
- Reinforces patient and family-centered care
- Inspires community loyalty

HEROES
WITH HEARING LOSS

You've earned this freedom

For millions of veterans, hearing loss is a very personal, solitary challenge. The Heroes With Hearing Loss* program brings veterans like you, veteran families and hearing healthcare professionals together to share proven, lifestyle-focused solutions that make a life-changing difference.

Now, veterans can self-certify their hearing loss for a captioned telephone and service* – available at no cost from the program sponsor, Hamilton® CapTel®.

MIDLANDS
VETERANS ENGAGEMENT COUNCIL

WHAT TO EXPECT?

Participants will rotate through 10 interactive stations including:

- Financial & credit readiness
- Military & VA benefits guidance
- Housing & homeownership readiness
- Career planning & long-term financial strategy
- Wellness, mindset, and support networks

Connecting Veterans, service members, and families to trusted resources—all in one place.

VetConnect is the Midlands Veteran Engagement Council's (MVEC) first large-scale collaborative resource fair, designed to provide easy access to financial, benefits, career, housing, and wellness support for the military-connected community from federal, state, and local organizations.
